Oamaru and the Waitaki District may not have the name recognition of places like Queenstown, Rotorua or other New Zealand tourism hotspots, but it has been one of the fastest-growing travel destinations in the country for several years. This volume, written by the owners and hosts of the historic Pen-y-bryn Lodge in Oamaru, introduces the reader to this stunningly beautiful, historic, and interesting part of New Zealand, and even includes several recipes from the lodge.
