SCIENCE ALIVE 5 EBOOKS 2019

Author: Saroja Sundararajan

Release Date: Lanzamiento previsto: @@expectedReleaseDate@@

Science Alive (1-5) is a completely new 5-year course specially designed to make the teaching and learning of science a meaningful and truly 'aliVe' experience. The series is planned around the philosophy that science can be learnt only if the child acquires a scientific temperament — there must be curiosity and a kindling of the child's imagination; the joy of discovery and satisfaction of inferring and drawing conclusions.

Special features include:

simple language and vocabulary

child-centred approach

lively and plentiful illustrations text interwoven with easy-to-do activities and experiments a help column to explain new words, give or elicit additional information, etc.

enrichment projects to give ideas for exhibitions, projects, etc.
