This combination textbook, workbook, and practice book on general didactics is one of a kind. It brings together contemporary concepts, methods, and reflection, and follows itself the structure of good teaching: from precognition to consolidated knowledge, from application to practice, from practice to reflection. Teachers-to-be and seasoned instructors will find inspiration, practical tips, and theoretical impulses for individual lessons, that meet current standards and remain adaptable to each context.u003cbr/u003e
