Sina and her Tuna (Sina ma lana Tuna) is a story of a love affair between Sina and her pet eel which she name Tuna. Sina was sincere and innocent while caring for Tuna. Tuna was a cute and cutling eel that Sina often held in her arms and perhaps kiss it as a pet. While this was going on Tuna felt in love with Sina. The more Sina held Tuna and cutling it, the more Tuna wants to have a human relationship with Sina. As Tuna grew bigger and bigger Sina became afraid of Tuna in fact she and her parents ran away to escape from Tuna. It turned out at the end that Tuna was a prince from another country who was cursed when he turned into an eel and could not turn into human again. Before he died he asked Sina to burry his head near her house. Later a tree grew from where the head was burried which turned out to be a coconut tree.
